Challenger School to Host Renowned Author Dinesh D'Souza

San Jose, CA (January 13, 2010) – Challenger School will host distinguished author Dinesh D'Souza on Wednesday, Jan. 20, from 7–8:15 p.m. D'Souza, who has been a featured guest on popular television programs such as The Today Show, The O'Reilly Factor, and Good Morning America, will share his insights on the greatness of America exclusively for a group of Challenger students and parents at the Santa Clara Convention Center located at 5001 Great American Parkway in Santa Clara.

Raised in India, D'Souza traveled to the United States as a high school exchange student and was so impressed with America's unparalleled opportunities that he became an American citizen. Through hard work and self-reliance, he has earned acclaim as a celebrated author, inspirational speaker and policy advisor, having served in the Ronald Reagan White House.

D'Souza's published works include:

- What's So Great About America
- The Virtue of Prosperity
- Ronald Reagan: How an Ordinary Man Became an Extraordinary Leader
- The End of Racism

Headquartered in Sandy, Utah, Challenger School is an independent private school, with 20 campuses in California, Idaho, Nevada and Utah, that serves more than 10,000 preschool to 8th grade students annually. Challenger focuses on the core foundations of knowledge (reading, composition, math, and history), promotes traditional American values, and inspires children to find joy and self-worth through achievement.
